

Intercultural worship to the King of the world

On this day, the Thursday before Good Friday and Easter, many Christians observe Mundy Thursday. Today, we remember Jesus's last supper with his disciples and his surrender to the Father's will in the Garden of Gethsemane. We invite you to engage with this responsive reading (perhaps around a meal with friends or family) and also to offer your "Ye JuNim" (Yes, Lord in Korean) along with Jesus today.

The prayer is one page below:

Intercultural worship to the King of the world

RESPONSIVE READING

Leader Come to the table and eat with Jesus
People Where invisible becomes visible

Leader Come to the table and eat with Jesus
People Where fear turns into safety

Leader Come to the table and eat with Jesus
People Where scarcity turns into abundance.

Leader Come to the table and eat with Jesus
People Where betrayers will be called friends

Leader Come to the table and eat with Jesus
People Where shame turns into honor

Leader Come to the table and eat with Jesus
People Where despair turns into a new hope

Leader At the table Jesus calls your name and asks you, "Do you love me?"
People "Yes, Lord."

Leader "Do you love me?"
People "Yes, Lord. You know that I love you."

Leader "Do you love me?"
People "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you."

Leader Come to the table and eat with Jesus
People Where He prepares our daily bread and He becomes our daily bread.
